

Plan to attend the “Service Area 5 – Almaden, So. San Jose”
Large Animal Evacuation Training

When: Saturday, January 7, 2012
8:30am – 3:30pm

Where: SCC Horsemen's Association,
20350 McKean Road, San Jose, CA

Who should attend:

- Anyone interested in participating in any of the seven Service Area Large Animal Evacuation Teams
- Large animal owners or persons interested in large animals
- Persons interested in learning more about large animal evacuation plans in Santa Clara County

Topics include:

- Cal Fire presentation on fire safety and evacuations
- Sheriff’s Office will discuss evacuation procedures
- Office of Emergency Services will talk about how you can be part of the solution & become a Disaster Service Worker
- Tri-County Vets presentation on Large Animal Emergencies
- Livestock Loading/Unloading Safety
- Driver’s course and trailer inspection for those interested in being part of one of the teams
- ICS/SEMS/NIMS certificate training will follow for those interested in attending this mandatory training (3:30pm-5:00pm)

Join us to learn more about the future plans for a successful Santa Clara County Large Animals Evacuation Team program!